Annual Public Notice of Nondiscrimination

Effective January 5, 2026

Freedom Ridge Veterans Resource Center does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, religion, or veteran discharge status in the admission, access to, or treatment of individuals in its programs and services.

This policy applies to all programs offered by Freedom Ridge Veterans Resource Center, including benefits and claims assistance, housing navigation, employment services, and mental health support.

Filing a Complaint

Any individual who believes they have been subjected to discrimination may file a complaint with our office. Complaints should be submitted in writing and include the name and contact information of the person filing, a description of the alleged discriminatory action, and the date it occurred.

Complaints may be mailed to 1450 Liberty Commons Drive, Suite 200, Sacramento, CA 95814, emailed to connect@freedomridgevrc.org, or delivered in person to our front desk during regular business hours.

Auxiliary Aids and Services

Auxiliary aids and services, including alternate formats and interpretation, are available upon request to ensure effective communication with individuals with disabilities or limited English proficiency. Requests should be made at least five business days in advance when possible.

This notice is reviewed and reissued annually in accordance with our nondiscrimination policy.
